PART B(Read carefully the following case and answer the questions given below)

6. A seasoned criminal with many murder charges on him has escaped from a jail. There is a likelihood that he will kill more people while he is on the run.

Mr. A who is the police inspector in the area has found links to trace the criminal's presence in his area. Mr. A has a reputation of being an encounter specialist since he doesn't believe much in the efficacy of judicial trials as they are time consuming. It is likely that Mr. A will do the same this time. His subordinates, though, disapprove of encounter killings as a routine measure, dare not oppose him due to hierarchical pressure. A constable Mr. C doesn't want to participate in the encounter operation, but due to the fear of being terminated he is left with no choices.

- a) Who are the key players in this case? (4)
- b) What are the moral issues involved in this case? (5)
- c) Are encounter killings legally correct? If yes, how (5)
- d) How is Mr. C participating in the encounter morally valid? (5)
- e) Do you agree with Mr. A's point of view regarding the judicial system? (6)
